indeed persuade themselves, that present be obtained by a passage of a bill, includ-ibjects, in which, for the prefent, the old he agreed to and that the matter might again hereafter with success; but can you e yourselves, as to imagine, it there is n the arguments hitherto urged in fup. in the arguments minerto urged in fun-datable, and the propriety of connecting the law in the propriety of connecting to become more forcible from another of the law in the what reasonable hope we of ever succeeding, in separating the sear succeeding, in separating the law in provision for the clergy, and the provision for the clergy, and the what reasonable expectation can you ou will ever the able to get a correction r moderation of the clergy's provision? well at once agree to a perpetual establish-provision for the clergy, the old table of a abutes connected with it, and thus, by blow, put it out of the power of your polggle, than turn your faces from temporary at for your resolution, and leave matters and perplexed, that every effort of your t prove unsuccessful.

an be plainer or better established, than constitution, we have a right to expect ment a free, uninterrupted admi illustion coording to the laws; that we have a right run the legislature an exercise of their priecting the cid, where they are found, and the establishment of new, laws, Ppromote the interests of the c untry; if s act contrary to the end of their inflitument can, and ought to give us a new it is our bufi els and interest to fil, the lole, wio fwerve from their duty, with if the upper house act contrary to the inflitution, if their conduct thould pron undue attachment to their separate inare men, and, as fuch, have their feeluniversal condemnation or fuch motives e the passion of shame, for however men in may affelt to refpife the centur's or fentibeiaus, y ta wen g ounded and universal of unworthy conduct, cannot but reach The proudest man. If the conduct of the thould proceed from mininformation, vay fo effectual to inform them truly of le of the conflituents, as by instructing the part thall be among you, the act to be he every body, every el eter ought there. di I mean not to dictite, if nething b t. propoled, may a offer to your confidera. if it would not be p oper to init uct our en that they again find up a feparate in. leading our the curry and officers in all reif it paffer, they invold then proceed in the may be thought necessary, but if it that that they immediatly endeavour to to the female without uteresty spending and our money: if any thing better can of at this critical time, so far from being gentlemen, your humble fervant, AN ELECTOR.

in in the contract of the cont A R S A S W har August 2.

IN these fall twelve days we have had no moistigm the Rollin army, which, we occasioned shy report of the Rushins be by the Turker but we are allured, from ity, that there is not the least ground for nor for hat other report of the Russians fed the Danube.

The emperor of Germany, y his west generals, is daily expected in d his troops, from every corner of his doe in full march towards the Polith and retories, His new acquired provinces in daily fertifying, and his troops there are of defence. The king of Pruffia observes eder, and with 1250,000 of the best discipay feems to be determined to execute his In call probability, will take up his next externs at Conftantinople. Several great to the old ftyle) powers in Europe are every motion of these wise and politic h the utmost jealoufy, and frem very active inets to prevent the plan of the three univ from being carried into execution, both and north, and are preparing to oppose by fee and land, fo that we may conclude tal war is very hear taking place in Eu-

O'N DON, " Aligniff 17.

And survey that San mier faid a few days ago, that there would le business for parliament the entuing winnat for once he might promife himfeif a on. We know he is a great prophet, tope the aboye will turn out a true pro-firuggle, idering the whole course of the ng indirectly made against Lord North by Dury party, (with Lord Gower, who he fift lord of the treatury, at their head) pole, a dirett application was made a few of a great personage, whose reply was, "I greatelt good wither for my Lord Gower, sperience I have had of my Lord North's ves me under no necessity of making a new rom South America say, that in that part d the feas fwarm with Spanish men of war, which come there in order to re-reablish the Spanis ards in their former possessions in the island of Liconia, out of which they have been drove by the Chi-them feem very attainable. 20 of a firm refistance to arbitrary government, and unconstitutional innovation: a conduct like this of the prefent Americans would have done honour to the most virtuous repub-

A gentleman, who arrived laft Wednesday from Turin, gives an account that the king of Saidinia has augmented his army to 100,000 men, all well trained to arms, which he intends to keep as an army of obfervation, to watch the motions of the king ? Pruffia. He further fays, that according to all appearance, and the preparations that he faw making in Italy, and those parts of Germany he passed through, it cannot be long before a war will break out amongst hose powers, as the king of Pruffia is looked upon with a calous eye on account of his feizing on part of the dominions of the king of Poland.

Aug. 23. Though a conciliation has not taken place between a great perf nage and his two brothers on the report of the Duke of Gloucelter's going abroad, the K. fent to him a very wholesome message, desiring that, though he could not yet fee him, he would not take a frep that might, in all probability, prevent his ever having that fatisfaction.

The following paragraph is inferted in the Edinburgh advertifer, which arrived on Saturday parts By a gentleman who arrived here on Sunday from Spain, we have the following intelligences that an order came down from Madrid to Cadiz on the 3th ult. for the fhips that are ready, to fail immediately for South-Ame ica; a galleon that arrived at Cadis on the atth of June having brought advice, that the Chilefiant, after taking Baidivia, had been joined by great mind? bers of Indians from Peru, and tribes lying eath of Cordeleirians des Andes, and had directed titeir march for the city Imperial, which they took after a fout resistance made by the Spaniards; but all the the sword, and, after pillaging the city let it on fire. They then directed their course for St. Jago, in fourth lat. 34. and west long. 77, the capital of the Spanlards in Chili, the governor of which was preparing to meet them; he has fent advice with the above galleon, that it he does not receive timely succours from Old Spains he will be unable to withitand the straces of these

We hear that last week the Prullian ambaffallor received three different packets from Berlin, which ofcasioned divers conferences between his Excellency and the secretaries of state. By a gentleman who arrived on Sunday night from France we have undoubted intelligence, that the French are very bufy at Breit in getting a large fleet ready, and that they had already nine ships of the line, and four frigates completely rigged and manned, ready to fail on the frioriest notice.

It is an undoubted fact thie the Dutch bave received orders for upwards of five hundred-tons of thot and shells for the use of the Freitch, half of which, it is faid, are for Spain.

Aug. 24. It is faid the colony meets bere been given to understand, that if any turther opposition is made to the measures of government; The feveral bounties paid for the encouragement of American produce, on their importation to Great Britain, may probably be withdrawn.

Aug. 26. Orders are given for shipping off rquantichiefs of the Indian tribes in alliance with Geents r. R poliure il dei

The whole revenue of the civil officer that weltous go out to India, together with that of their feveral dependents, haverbeen calculated by an Eakoladia in proprietor, generally well informed, aud they appear

On Thursday last the lower house of allembly of this province adjourned themselves till Wednesday, the tenth of this instant; and on Friday his Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the council, pro-rogued the general affembly to Tuelday the likt enth. Benjamin Ogle, and Philip Thomas Lee, Esquies, were last week sworn in members of the lard proprietary's council of state.

We are requested to infert the following puragragh.
It being reported, that upon a question in the up-It being reported," that upon a question in the upon per house, whether the inspection bill should passy the house were divided, the gentleman afting an oresident giving no vote; My? Ogle was worse in so the purpose of voting against the bill, which determined the question in the negative. The real saugust, there was no division, and the affair was felicie before Mr. Oglo was fworn in, the bill was not carried to the lower house till afterwards.

MAN that understands farming, and making. meadow, that will undertake she care of 123 hands, and bring proper recommendations; of his, knowledge and fidelity, may meet with encouragement, by applying to tf DANIEL of SAINT THOMAS JENIFER.

USTIMPORTED, In the Molly and Betley, Captain Nicholfon, from -London; in the Restoration, Cartain Thomas,

IX hundred acres of land, part of Pile's delight? fituate in Frederick county, near Sharpefburgh. The foil is rich, and as well adapted to farming as any land in that part of the county. Any person inclining to purchase, may view the land by applying to capt. Joseph Chaplain, living near the pre-

To be exposed to publish fale, on the first day of December next,

ABOUT 300 acres, part of a tract of land, called the Mill Frog, lying in Baltimore county, near Hardegam's tavern, about 30 miles from Baltimore-town; also, about 600 acres, part of a tract, called Caleb's delight, enlarged, lying near Francis Davis's, and about 4 miles from Mansell's tavern. The fale to begin about 12 o'clock, at Hartegam's tavern, where attendance will be given, and terms of sale made known, by SAMUEL DORSEY, junr. N. B. Will be fold, by the executors of Caleb Dorfey, deceased, on the same day, a tract of land, called Timber Ridge, lying near faid Hardegam's tavern, and contains about 55 acres.

October 27, 1773 To be fold at publick vendue, on Friday the zoth day of November next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, at the late dwelling-house of Augustice

E confiding of men, women, boys, and girls; amongst which are two exceeding good houle wenches, who have always been brought up cosall forts of honfe work, and a very valuable young -! negro man, who can do any kind of plantation work; also a parcel of horses, mares, and collists Gefock.

. JOHN MARRIOTT Rock-creek, Frederick county, October 4, 4773. On Monday the 15th of November next, will be of fold to the highest bidder,

-children. ERASMUS GILL, fent

Alexandria, in Virginia, October 20, 177300 To be fold, by the subscriber in this town, HOU E and lot, well fituated for trade, or A a private family, for terms apply to LUCAS GARVEY.

To be fold, for sterling or current money, the itch to be hoped shap add purishments sophication of November next, on the premise; who are not proported will inches be such that a such the sterling in the premise; who are not proported will inches be such that a such that it is a special to the sterling in the sterli colony of Virginia, about 25 miles from Leedhirgers and 30 from Alexandrias adjoining the limber capt. Francis Payton, Sco. The fall fults for plaming et of proprietor, generally well informed and the appears. Francis rayton, destination will informed and the part and in the appears to amount to no less a fum than according to amount to no less a fum than according to a mount to no less a fum than according to a mount to no less a fum than according to a mount to no less a fum than a function of the part and may be entered on this fall.

ELGHT DOLL'ART THE BOWN REPROME STRAYED or fiolen out of Joseph Annal's par-the 16th of Glober, 1773, radiately forest horizant to bout 14 kands high, boo. 7 years elds with adapted blaze in his face; both hind feet white haif up their legs, hanging mane, which tails panes and gelsh lops. Whoever will bring the faid horse to the fubscriber, at Ennill's serry in the faid county, shall receive the above moved of civit dollars, and shall receive the above reward of eight dollars, and all renfonable charges, paid by whome to the subscriber's passare, on Tuest day the 14th of September, a black Mare, a bout thirteen hands and a half high, four years old, branded on the near buttock; C. H. a he has a large star, and was with foal when taken away. Whomes will bring her to the subscriber, half have so ever will bring her to the subscriber shall have 20 fillings rewards on the west of the following CLEMENT HILL.

SPRIGGS and DONALDSON.

Tarloss and Span-marees in Asiatrous AKE this method to acquaint the publick. matter to carry their design, into execution as they their store on the dock, in Annapolit, by whole of the first they have but imported, a large quantity are a powerful and numerous people, and have storing to fills no retail, one reasonable terms, iotocolite, and prove as great stitutation to those large and the city of Baldvia, and orber placer. Historian to what Indian composition to live under the Spanish government.

A NEAT assortment of European and Bast-Indian to a commanded they of the trade, as they have had having severely felt the fruitly of the Alcillettor. A What is stored and the solution and provided the stored of mild life for a few solutions and stored and provided the stored of mild life for a few solutions. The stored is the stored and provided the stored and stored and in the ing them, to free themselves from the Spanish of the stored to both as come advices, lately received from our limitation of the stored to both as the stored from our limitation and the stored to both as the stored to be stored to both as the stored to be stored of two years past, the ship contigued to Messis. Devenport, Strather, and Lane, merchants in Prince-Willam's trainty, Virginia; the faid Joseph Delaand he will hear of lomething to his advantage, or any period knowing him to be dead, a line from them will be electmed a particular favour.

October 21, 1773. WANTS EMPLOYMENT, SOBER man, sthat hath been oren to the A principles of gardening, who has been employed in that way by the first familes in Great-Britain, and is well silered he can give full fatisfaction to any gentleman that hall chuse to employ him, and as he is veried in the mattematicks, would be glad to be employed by fome gentleman that is going to carry loine grand, delign, into execution, as necesione say plan in the art of. gardening of for further particulars enquire of Mr. Robertson at Gover or iden s, or to Mr. Andrew Wales, brewer in Alexand in 200

AMERICAN MAGAZINE:

"HOSE :gentlemen and sadies, who incline to encourage the unblication or the Royal Americate Magazine, are hereby informed, that the subscription papers will be cecurred to the intented near Mrs. Ramfiy's, on the head of Severn, for publisher in a few days, in order that he may affecting cash, bills of exchange, or current monocertain, the number subscribed for: Subscriptions

N. B. The introduction to the Royal American Magazine (or number litto-becornaming-ud; with two Velegent copper-place priors) will be published on the hirt day of fenery next was 1000 and 1

ANY gendeman, who is quality o teach the work; also a parcel of horses, mares, and collection. Williams school, in the city of Annapolis, will be hogs, sheep, and all forts of household surniture; tools extreated with on the following terms. His annual redious to mention. Six months credit will be extreated with one the following terms. His annual given in the purchaser, on giving bond and security a rence to be pain by each schools in the tale to begin precisely at eleven to apperious who that the meanagers. to a perion; who first be espable of dicharging the office of where will be given 7.30 derling per annum certain; and 2.2, 16 curie cypaid by each fcholar as ab-vementimed; to a c ibe will can teach English, will be given Logitating semainep a annum, with every advan-SEVERAL valuable negro men, women, and cageoriting from the featilets he, intificite, and it is children. There we very good and the answer the real sections of the district of the dis day of Aprilaners, county to property bulle sill da > nameda tames Garland; abona qua yeaga aldantistantis 6 Addres Algin; pretrie well smale; this dood that and had life to part the same tools fell the first throught and some and small throught the same and trouble to the same and trouble to the same and trouble to the same and troubles to the same to the minimale share thim seemed the raid leader of the said leader o takem definites from home, forty shillings chreeney so and if out of the province, the above, reward; paid BRICE T. B. WORTHINGTON.

Annapolis, October 19. 1773. OMMITTED to my cultoey as run ways, a negro man, who calls himself Jack Scott, who istadvertifed in the Virginia gazette, by the name of Effex, by Anthony Winch der, of Buck-ingham county; likewife John Birmingham. who appears to be the person advertised in the Pennsylvania packet, by Edger Brewer, of Goldin-till, New-York. Their masters are destend to take them away, and pay charges, to WILLIAM NOKE, fheriff.